TABLE OF CONTENTS
WELCOME, LIFELONG LEARNERS!

FROM THE OLLI @ UCONN TEAM

OLLI at UConn’s Spring 2020 semester is here! We hope you find something to enjoy in our selection of courses and special events. This semester, we continue to offer everything you know and love, but always with an eye to continuous improvement based on what matters to you: new courses, Café presentations, a wide variety of clubs and volunteer opportunities, and more lectures offered by UConn faculty.

This semester will also see the inaugural John and Joyce DeCesare Renaissance Lecture on the Environment as we honor the memory of John DeCesare, a founding member of OLLI at UConn, and an advocate of lifelong learning and environmental awareness. Please consider making a donation to the John and Joyce DeCesare Renaissance Fund (details on page 4) so that we can continue to provide quality programming for everyone.

As ever, OLLI at UConn is grateful for the support and generosity of the Osher Foundation, UConn Waterbury, and Campus Director, Dr. William Pizzuto.

Whatever you do at OLLI this semester, we hope you enjoy your lifelong learning experiences!

John DeCesare was a founding member of the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Connecticut, and a longtime community leader. John’s passion for learning throughout his life modeled OLLI’s philosophy of lifelong learning. He was a noted advocate of environmental conservation, which is why we were inspired to create an annual lecture series about what was most important to him. John was a true Renaissance man, as commemorated by the fund set up to benefit OLLI by his wife Joyce DeCesare. Donations to The John & Joyce DeCesare Renaissance Fund provided the means necessary to hold this inaugural lecture with Mr. Gephard.

This will be a discussion-based course based on readings and critical thinking. Our discussions will endeavor to search for understanding of opinions that are different from our own as well as to search for common ground. In order to preserve an atmosphere where everyone will feel free to express their opinions we will observe ground rules. Being able to discuss important issues in productive ways is especially important in this election year when the country feels so factionalized and critical thinking is essential as we are tasked with casting our votes.

PROFESSOR RACHAEL LYNCH: "Noteworthy Recent Irish Fiction" membership: OLLI provides memberships in 12-month cycles. The cycles extend from January to January OR July to July. Members may register for courses for all sessions that occur within their membership cycle. A member joining OLLI for the first time in Spring 2020 will have a membership cycle from January 2020 to January 2021. The cost is $65.

registration: Registrations are on a first-come, first-served basis. If you register online, you will receive an immediate confirmation email. If you register with a paper registration form, you will receive an email confirmation as soon as a staff member receives and processes your registration. Refunds and course credits will be issued on a case-by-case basis depending on the circumstance.

Where/when is my class? Given the tendency for room assignments to change throughout the registration period, we have not included them in this catalog. Double-check your course dates, times, and room assignments on the online course catalog (go to olli.uconn.edu) the day before your first class - before you arrive to campus! Any unforeseen, last-minute changes will be listed on our Room Assignments chart in the main lobby or on the bulletin board outside the OLLI Office (Room 103).

Class times: The Friday courses in this catalog are organized by time-slot. Not ALL courses in a particular time slot meet during that exact time-frame. Please pay close attention to each course description to note its meeting time and length, as it may differ slightly from the overarching time category.

"Sitting in" on OLLI Classes: Please remember that you are not permitted to sit in on an OLLI class if you are not officially registered and paid up for the class. There are three main reasons why this is not permitted: 1) Classrooms capacity limits, 2) Most presenters have a preferred class size, 3) It is simply unfair for a person who has not paid for a class to sit alongside students who have paid to be in the class. Even if a presenter has told you that it is okay for you to sit in, please refrain from doing so.

Classroom space: OLLI staff and instructors thank you for being mindful of the other classes using the classroom. Please leave in a timely manner in order to give each incoming instructor ample time and space to set up for his/her class.

Consideration for others: As always, please be considerate of your fellow students in the classroom, especially with regard to leaving and entering the classroom quietly, silencing your cell phones, and also to those who may be allergic or sensitive to strong perfumes, fabric softeners, etc.

Participating in an OLLI Club or Committee: Please be reminded that you are not permitted to be part of an OLLI Club or Committee unless you have a valid, up-to-date membership.

Civilty: OLLI is proud to offer courses that cover diverse and challenging subjects. Discussion of ideas is a core part of learning. Please remember that respect and a civil exchange of views are key to understanding each other.

Questions: If you have a question or issue, please refrain from going to the Student Services Suite on the second floor. Instead, please report to the OLLI Information Table on Fridays or the OLLI Office (Room 103) any day. We are better equipped to answer all your OLLI-related questions.

Cancellations: When UConn Waterbury cancels or delays due to weather, OLLI is cancelled for the entire day. Check alert.uconn.edu or participating local news stations to check on the university’s status. In the case that an OLLI instructor has to cancel class due to illness, scheduling conflicts, or any other issues of a personal nature, all attempts will be made by the instructor and/or OLLI Staff to contact course members, via email and/or telephone. Last minute, unforeseen cancellations will be posted in the main lobby and on the bulletin board outside the OLLI office (Room 103).
